

THE CLASSIC TOUR

GJÓGV

TOUR 2 The Faroe Islands has a unique landscape and is steeped in history and culture. There are birds, sheep, friendly folk. There is peace and quiet, broken only by the sound of rushing waterfalls and waves crashing against the cliffs. Exploring the Faroe Islands by car gives you the chance to see it all.

DAY 1: Arrive with Atlantic Airways to Vágur Airport. Collect your hire car at the airport and the rest of the day is free to explore Vágur independently. We suggest you take an easy walk to the waterfall Bøsdalafossur, from where you can see the free-standing rock Geituskoradrangur and Vágur's attractive steep south coast. Or drive to the villages of Bøur and Gásadalur to enjoy the view across to the islet 'Tindhólmur'. Overnight stay on Vágoy.

DAY 2: On your way north, we suggest a fascinating boat trip to the Vestmanna bird cliffs sailing under the cliffs and into some of the grottoes. This trip takes approx. 2 hours. Then visit the unique Saga Museum. Continue to the village of Tjørnuvík, surrounded by steep mountains. From here you will be able to see the unique rock formations known as the "Giant and the Old Hag" off the north tip of Eysturoy. Drive over the only bridge across the Atlantic Ocean to the village of Eiði on Eysturoy, with its unique scenery and spectacular view of Slættaratindur (882m), the highest mountain in the Faroes. Overnight stay on Eysturoy.

DAY 3: Enjoy the day in Gjógv, known for its distinctive natural harbour. Here you can take a two-hour walk on your own with views of the bird cliffs, 'Djúpini' and the beautiful valley of 'Ambadalur'. A hiking map can be purchased at the hotel in Gjógv. Overnight stay on Eysturoy.

DAY 4: From the village of Leirvík, drive through the undersea tunnel to Klaksvík. The tunnel is decorated with light art by the famous Faroese artist Tróndur Patursson. From Klaksvík, you can explore the other Northern Islands each with its own dramatic landscape. You can drive to Kunoy and Viðoy and sail to Kalsoy, Svínøi and Fugloy. If you walk along the 'Love path' up to Klakkur, you will be rewarded with an impressive view in all directions. Overnight stay on the Northern Isles.

DAY 5: From the village of Hvannasund you can take the local ferry and sail out to the islands of Svínøi and Fugloy. Further north is the Faroes most northerly village of Viðareði, reckoned to be amongst the islands most attractive villages and well worth a visit. Enjoy a coffee or a bite to eat in the local restaurant. Overnight stay on the Northern Isles.

DAY 6: On your way to Tórshavn, we suggest you stop in Nes to visit the charming old rectory full of history. Visit the wool shop 'Navia' in Toftir where you can buy the latest fashion in Faroese woollen goods. In the afternoon you will visit a private house and its impressive garden in Søgldarfjørður where coffee and cakes will be served. Overnight stay in Tórshavn.

DAY 7: Visit Kirkjubøur before you leave Tórshavn. Kirkjubøur is the oldest centre of history and culture in the Faroe Islands, with a picturesque old farm that has been owned by the same family for 17 generations. See the unfinished Magnus Cathedral and the small medieval church of St. Olav. Overnight stay in Tórshavn.
