

GENERAL CONDITIONS

ARRANGEMENTS

Travel in this program is arranged by GreenGate Incoming in cooperation with local tour operators.

RESERVATIONS

Bookings are secured when deposit has been received or with a travel agency guarantee. Client accepts the written conditions of travel with payment of deposit.

DEPOSIT

A deposit of EUR 136 | DKK 1.000 per person must be paid upon registration unless otherwise stated in connection with the tour in question. If the deposit is not paid within the stated time-limit, the agreement will lapse.

FINAL PAYMENT

The balance of the packages must be received no later than 7 weeks before departure date, as tickets and travel documents need to be issued. If the package is ordered less than 7 weeks before departure, the payment has to be received within 3 days of confirmation. The above is valid unless otherwise specified for that trip. Tickets and other travel documents will arrive latest 7 days prior to departure.

PRICES

The basic price includes the services stated for the destination in question. Any extra charges for special services are also stated for the individual destination.

Childrens Discount

Please contact GreenGate Incoming or your travel agency.

CHANGES

Unless otherwise stated the following applies: More than 30 days before departure: A service fee of EUR 75 per person will be charged for changes to flights and tours on the ground. Changes at a later time will be considered a cancellation and a new booking.

CANCELLATION

Unless otherwise noted, the following applies: more than 6 weeks before departure, full refund minus deposit. Between 4 and 6 weeks, payment refund minus EUR 473 | DKK 3.500 per person. Between 4 and 2 weeks from departure, refund of 50% of package cost. And less than 2 weeks before departure, no refund.

NOTE: if accompanying package arrangements, hotel reservations, or airline tickets have additional conditions, these conditions apply and the client will be informed at reservation.

CANCELLATION DUE TO SUDDEN ILLNESS

We recommend that you take out a sickness/cancellation insurance from your travel agency to cover the cancellation costs if it proves impossible or extremely difficult to participate in tours due to death or sudden illness/accidents requiring admission to hospital, periods in bed prescribed by a doctor or similar problems involving you or your spouse/partner, parents, parents in-law, children, grandchildren, siblings, grandparents, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law or travelling companions. This protection only applies if a medical report is presented no later than one week after the cancellation. The insurance premium is 3 per cent of the risk (minimum EUR 11 | DKK 81) and must be paid together with the deposit. If you fail to submit a medical report or your cancellation is due to other reasons, the standard cancellation rules apply.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

Traveler is responsible for all costs incurred for illness or hospitalization during travel, unless the tour operator can be held responsible. It is therefore highly recommended to secure travel insurance which covers costs due to accident, death, medical treatment, return travel, or loss or damage of luggage.

AIRLINE RESPONSIBILITY

Participating airlines take no responsibility for travellers during times when they are not on board their own planes. Concerning checked luggage, we refer to participating airlines' regulations.

CLIENTS RESPONSIBILITY

The client is required to carry a valid passport. The client is required to provide a full and correct name that corresponds with their passport and any other travel documents. Changes in names after reservations costs EUR 81 | DKK 600. When receiving tickets and travel documents, it is the clients responsibility to review all documents and confirm that all names are correct. The name on the ticket must be the same as your passport, inconsistencies can prohibit you from checking in. The travel agency takes no responsibility for the consequences of receiving incorrect information.

COMPLAINTS AND REIMBURSEMENT

Complaints and possible reimbursement should be made directly to GreenGate Incoming so that the issue can be remedied as soon as possible, and with the least inconvenience to the traveler. For complaints and reimbursements after travel, contact GreenGate Incoming as soon as possible and at least with in 2 weeks after return. Documentation is required.

DISCOUNT TICKETS

If you wish to take advantage of discount tickets available on the market, and combine these to fashion your trip, they must be issued on separate documents. These tickets often times can not be cancelled, changed, or refunded. This means you assume responsibility if, because of delays, a connection is missed. Neither the travel agency or airlines take any responsibility for costs for additional airline tickets and accommodations.

FLIGHT TIMES ON YOUR ITINERARY AND TICKETS

Times shown on tickets and itinerary are always local. After itinerary and flight tickets are issued, changes may be made to arrival and departure times (often from April 1 – November 1 when airlines change their flight times, and also for daylight savings). Please check your flight times in the issued travel documents. Contact your travel agency immediately if times don't correlate with your original reservation, so possible inconsistency, can be rectified before departure.

CHECK-IN TIME

It is recommended, upon arrival at the airport, that you orientate yourself with check-in times. Information from GreenGate Incoming or the airline concerning departure gate and terminals are conditional, not final. There are circumstances when it is necessary to change gates/terminal. Always check gate/terminal departure information, particularly during connecting flights.

TAXES AND FEES

Some taxes are included with your ticket fare. However, there are occasions when airport or other travel taxes must be paid at departure or on site, which prohibits pre-payment. These taxes will be noted in your itinerary. Some countries have the right to, with little or no notice, apply new taxes or increase existing taxes. These changes may take place between your reservation and departure, or between your departure and return.

PASSPORT, VISAS, VACCINATIONS, ETC.

Nordic citizens are not required to carry a passport, visa or vaccination documentation when traveling to the Faroes. However, it is recommended to bring your passport as ID.

If this changes, we will make the information available in the catalogue, or on your confirmation. Other citizens should check requirements for the country of destination. Individuals with multiple citizenry, and groups with people from different countries should make this information available so appropriate guidance can be given. If this information is not provided, the tour provider does not assume responsibility for the consequences for missing travel documentation, etc. Note: there are often requirements for transit visas. Passports outside the EU must be valid for 6 month after your arrival.

TRANSFERRABLE

Travel is non transferrable.

UNUSED SERVICES, Etc.

If the client does not cancel the trip and/or does not appear for the listed time and place for departure and return, the travel agency has the right to charge full price for travel. If the client does not utilize arranged transportation, or in other ways does not utilize the services which have been ordered, the client can not demand a reimbursement.

THE AGENCYS TECHNICAL RESPONSIBILITY

GreenGate Incoming are required by law to complete any package listed in their catalogue/ price list The agency takes no responsibility for changes, delays, etc., from breach of contract, strikes, weather, or conditions that the agency has no control over.

CHANGES/CANCELLATIONS

The technical organizer has the right to make necessary changes because of low participation. If, because of these changes, the client no longer wants to participate, a refund will be given, but further claims will not be considered. The technical organizer can, with 20 days notice, cancel a planned trip. If it is not possible to find a satisfactory alternative, a refund will be provided. Further claims will not be considered.

PRICE CHANGES AFTER PURCHASE

Prices are based on existing fees, tariffs, and exchange rates from August, 2016. GreenGate Incoming has no control over some price changes that may occur after confirmation. Price changes can occur because of changes in transportation cost like fuel, taxes, fees for services such as airport-, landing-, and departures. Notification of price changes must be made as soon as possible and at the latest, 20 days before departure and must not go above 10% of the advertised price. If these conditions are not kept, the client, at no additional cost, can cancel the trip. It is conditional that cancellation happens after notification of price change. If price goes down, the client will be informed as soon as possible. No adjustment to a lower price will be made within 20 days of departure, and no consideration will be given to claims for refund. If domestic taxes or fees to the state are reduced or removed, and it goes into affect before day of departure, GreenGate Incoming are require by law to reimburse the traveler if the amount is over EUR 14.

OTHER CONDITIONS

All travel is under the jurisdiction of the Danish Travel Bureau Association and Consumer Board's conditions for participation in package travel. Consideration is made for typing errors and changes in price as a consequence of changed purchasing conditions.
